Accessibility

We have tried to make this website accessible to as many people as possible.

We aim to ensure that our website conforms to WCAG 2.0 Level AA, with the exception of pages including embedded audiovisual content where it is sadly not possible to meet this standard.

The site has been designed to enable sensible reading and navigation by screen readers, speech browsers and mobile devices.

If you need to change the appearance of this website, we recommend that you use browser settings to do so. The site has been designed to accommodate browser based zooming of +/- 2 level.

If you have any questions or comments about this website's accessibility, please get in touch [5].
